Seniors

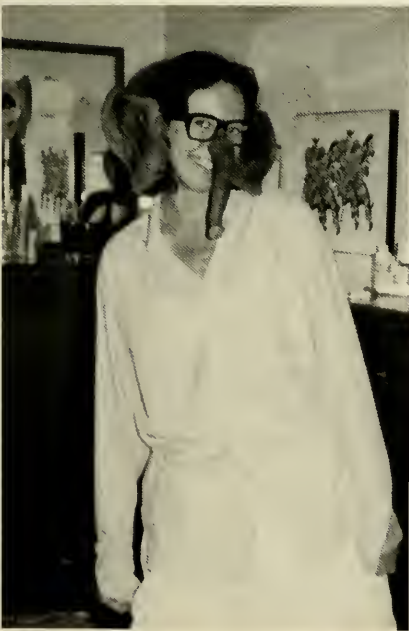

== So Long, Farewell ==

Whether it was gathering in the quad for ring games or sitting on the Senior Steps, the senior class showed incredible spirit this year. The first senior class not required to take comps and the last class to live under the restricted visitation hours, the seniors set the pace for the rest of the school. Due to an excessive budget, the seniors plan on tons o' fun for the spring. As the seniors prepare to say "goodbye" to Sweet Briar and "hello" to the real world, it is definite that they will make their last days here memorable.

8 Seniors

A Chinese New Year

Memories of Junior Banquet are few and far between, but those that have lasted are extra special for the Senior Class. They finally got their rings and robes, and wore them both with pride the next day. During the banquet, red-faced girls listened as their odes echoed throughout the Wailes Center, with laughs and cheers adding to the fun. The night ended with a final triumph at the Senior stairs, ringing in the Chinese New Year.

It is easy to be pleasant
When life flows by like a song
But the man worthwhile is one who will smile,
When everything goes dead wrong

For the test of the heart is trouble,

Is the smile that shines through the tears.

It was real. Well, on second thought . . .

If you have something real, hold onto it. Sometimes you have to stop running from your fears and face them or else you will always wonder, "What if?" It's better to be able to ask yourself where you're going than where you might have gone.

For the past year I've gotten to know myself better than I ever did before. Couldn't have done it without my friends. Don, keep those gremlins at bay. Shang, good luck sis, you're gonna go far once you learn how to stay out of trouble! Love ya! Jack, I always save the best for last. Special thanks to you fella, along with all of my love.

Mom, Dad, thanks for putting up with me through the rough times there past few years. I never seem able to tell you enough how much I love you.

The purpose of life is not to be happy. The purpose of life is to matter, to

 Happiness, in the ancient, noble verse, means self-fulfillment and is bestowed upon them.

Underclassmen

== We're So Excited ==

Finally upperclassmen. Sitting on the bench, having a younger sister class, getting the ring, and being one year from graduating highlighted the year for the Class of 1986. They absconded with Pink Flamingos, danced at Step Singing, scrubbed the Senior Stairs, and had a helluva time going "Around the World in 86 Days." Abriar or abroad, the juniors made the best of this year. Excited? You better believe it.

Transatlantic

Paris... London... Seville... St. Andrews... Florence... Basel... Sydney are some of the transatlantic places some Juniors choose to spend a semester or two-off to learn a language, live in different surroundings, or simply broaden their horizons. These Juniors certainly miss friends "Abriar", but the constant whirlwind of activity keeps their minds on new places and new faces. It is an opportunity to gain valuable experience, knowledge and sense of independence. Whether abroad for a semester or a year, the experience is unforgettable!

== Black & Blue All Over ==

Party much? The sophomores did. No longer "freshmen," they knew the ropes. Finally able to balance the study/party atmosphere of Sweet Briar, the Class of 1987 lived it up. They monopolized everyone at Fall Weekend, and managed to pull a profit anyway. Their Q.V.'s kept the spirit up, and now the rock belonged to them. The general concensus was that it's much better being a sophomore than it is being a freshman, and being an upperclassmen is just one year away. A slump? It's doubtful. This class had too much fun.

So This Is College

Handbook tests, Student Activities Fees, and roommates they had never seen before welcomed the Class of 1988 to Sweet Briar. Somehow, they managed to pay the monstrous phone and bistro bills, and swore that the infamous "freshmen ten ... twenty" would definitely pass them by. You win some and you lose some. But the freshmen have been an enthusiastic bunch of girls who play hard. Study? They'll worry about that later; right now it's over the mountain at least three nights a week. But that's okay. After all, you're only a freshman in college once.

Student Life

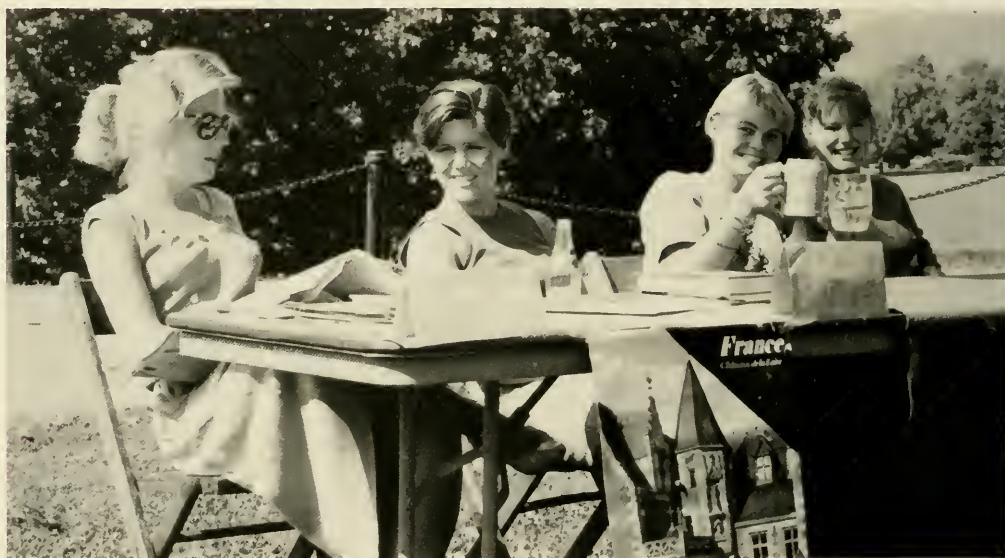

Monumental

Founder's Day is a day set aside early in the fall to honor Daisy Williams and the founding of Sweet Briar. Traditionally it is the first day the Senior Class appears in their robes, which have been filled with goodies by the Freshmen. Led by their sister class, the sophomores, the class of '85 managed to make it to the top of the hill and placed flowers on the Williams' family grave site. All in all, it was a monumental occasion.

Get Clubbed

One afternoon in early fall, the freshman class "got clubbed" and were introduced to both the tapped and joined clubs of Sweet Briar. Every organization was represented, with information and occasionally refreshments at the respective tables. The highlight of the day was the singing of the Sweet Tones, while the lowlight might have been the monotony of the Earphones! The day proved to be a helpful introduction for the Class of '88 to the various organizations and activities of Sweet Briar.

140 Student Life

= Stepping Out

Sitting on the Golden Stairs. It was the last time for the Class of '84, and the under classes gathered in the quad to sing their goodbyes as the Seniors prepared to step out into the real world. QV identities for the Class of '86 were revealed — supposedly for the first time — and despite the damp and rainy weather, the spirited tradition of step-singing remained intact.

Stepping In

As always, Fall Step-Singing helped both new and returning students step into the school year. Freshmen got their first taste of Sweet Briar tradition, and Seniors climbed the stairs for the first time as sole proprietors. Juniors had a younger sister class, and the sophomores were satisfied; finally, there was a class below them. Lots of laughs and lots of fun, step-singing set the pace for the upcoming year.

Paint By Numbers

... And the tradition continues with a night of splashing blue and gold. It was the class of '87 versus the class of '88 fighting for the honor to place their color on the Hitching Post. Lots of yelling, pulling, protecting and laughing culminated in the freshman class victory over the sophomores, who retreated graciously to take charge of the rock. Painting by numbers in shades of black, blue, gold and purple, Hitching Post '84 proved colorful for participants and spectators alike.

Monopolized

Fall Weekend '84, sponsored by the Sophomore Class, had a monopoly on everyone's fun for the three days that it lasted. The Big Band, with their swinging sound, made the waltz down Park Avenue enjoyable for all. On Sunday, the mellow tunes of Speidel, Goodrich and Goggin wound down a long week-end and sent everyone past go — but without collecting their $200.

Renovations

One of the most notable changes around Sweet Briar this year was the recently completed renovation of the Refectory. This addition served many purposes and proved to be a valuable asset for both faculty and students.

For many years now, the Sweet Briar Administration has recognized a need for a new facility to properly and safely house the Sweet Briar art collection. After 8 years in the conception and planning, the new Refectory houses not only a gallery, but academic accommodations, faculty offices, art history library, and archeology lab.

Clubs

At A Turning Point

Turning Point students are a special kind of group here at Sweet Briar. They certainly know the value of a superior education, and are here to further their own. They integrate into the daily academics and extracurricular activities of other Sweet Briar students, including tapped clubs, community services, and late night study habits! Coordinating jobs, families and studies is no easy task, and Sweet Briar's Turning Point students are doing an exceptional job.

Food For Thought

The Chung Mungs are well known for their Tuesday night cries of "Chung Mung Goodies," just when students seem to get the munchies for a doughnut while studying. Their ghostly figures can be seen sneaking into unsuspecting Tau Phi rooms during the Fall tapping of the two clubs.

Tau Phi is an honorary society of upperclassmen chosen for their academic demeanor and involvement in college life. The most important aspect of their club is to promote the stimulation of intellectual activity throughout Sweet Briar. "Food for thought" ... Does it work?

"Snap, Crackle, Pop" — here come the Sweet Tones. Singing a capella, their lovely voices enhance many a special occasion on campus, such as Christmas dinner and Parents' Weekend. After auditions in the spring, the Sweet Tones are tapped early in the morning and entertain everyone at breakfast. Every two years, a new album hits the charts at Sweet Briar recorded by our own Tones.

On the flip side come the Earphones, a tone-deaf, loud-mouthed group of singers with no sense of harmony. They have their own version of "Happy Birthday" sung to lucky girls in front of a cheering audience in Prothro Commons.

It's Just a Game

Late night drops and ringing bells are all a part of the everlovin' game played between the QV's and Bum Chums each year. Known for their enthusiasm, the QV's serve to promote class spirit and unity during their sophomore year.

The Bum Chums, otherwise known as the Notorious Ten, are a group of juniors who spend many a late night in search of those "chicken-hearted" QV's, though there are some who never make it out of bed. As well as sponsoring the Christmas Bazaar and the Bloodmobile, the Bum Chums also escort Amherst County children through the dorms for Halloween Trick-or-Treating.

A Tradition Of Excellence

Led by captain Chris Corcoran at right wing, this year's field hockey team finished 8-10-1 overall, and 6-4-0 in the ODAC. A narrow 1-0 loss to eventual champion Lynchburg in the Conference semi-final ended the season for SBC, but past season honors were garnered by sophomore Lee Carroll (All-Conference first team, All-Regional first team, and honorable mention All-American), junior goalkeeper Shannon Keulwein (All-Conference second team, All-Regional honorable mention), junior Nancy Buckey (All-Conference second team), and Chris Corcoran (All-Conference second team).

The Vixens reached their third consecutive ODAC final four with a 2-1 first round victory over rival Randolph-Macon (Ashland). Season highlights included victories over Hollins, R-MWC, Mary Baldwin, Randolph-Macon, Virginia Tech, Sewanee, and a tie with Wake Forest.

Graduating seniors Corcoran, Missy Geisel, and Ellen Raine will be missed; Geisel accounted for eight goals in her finest season, Raine anchored the defense at center back and Corcoran was the workhorse in midfield. Other starters included Christine Kirkpatrick, Lisa Hume, Missy Ackerman, Mary Yorke Robison, Mollee Buckingham.

Women In Cleats

The soccer team was 2-8-1 and 1-6-0 in the ODAC, with sophomore Shannon Wood and freshman Laura Ferrazzano being voted All-Conference for their play. Exciting action this season included a tie with powerhouse Virginia Wesleyan and victories over Randolph-Macon Women's College and Roanoke. The attack was sparked by Wood, juniors Betsy Nott and Karen Gonya, and sophomores Carol Goodman and Angelyn Schmid. Ferrazzano was a threat in transitional play from her sweeper position, and was ably aided in defense by seniors Nancy McMullen, Whitney Machnik, Lyn Christie and Lenetta Archard. Goalkeeping chores were handled by 'co-cagers El Warner '85 and Page Franson '87 with 67 and 115 saves respectively. Other squad members included senior Lisa Fondeur, juniors Ann Merriman and Amy Simmons, sophomore Maggie Fogarty, and freshman Bambi Middleton.

Senior Whitney Machnik received the well deserved "Most Improved Player" award for her outstanding efforts on the soccer field in her first year of play.

Team members would like to thank Assistant Coach Doug Clement for his invaluable assistance during their season.

Things That Go Bump

1984 was a building year for Sweet Briar's volleyball team, coached this year by Charlie Layne. The Vixen spikers finished their season with a record 7-11, a record Layne hopes to improve on next year.

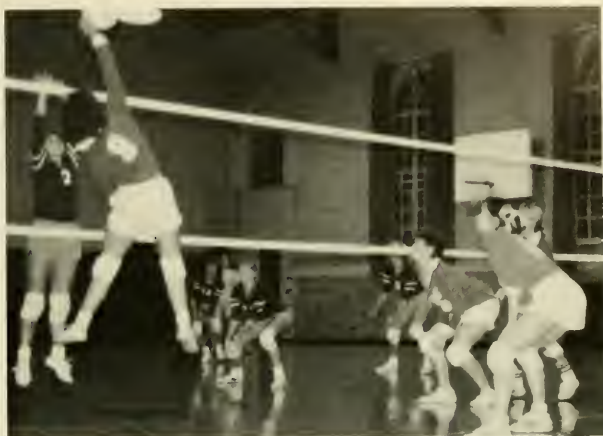

Instrumental to the success of the team was the dedication and leadership displayed by all returning players, particularly Deanne Dawson, who served as an inspirational leader to the team. Another contributing factor to the Vixens' success was Layne's decision to make freshman Kathryn Ingham the floor leader-setter, running 5-1.

A pleasant surprise for Layne was the discovery of junior Ashley Simmons' offensive talents which were spurred by the superb passing of Kris Whitney. Senior Cathleen Brooke continued to improve throughout the entire season while squad member Ginger Ryon also contributed to the overall success.

Highlights of the season included defeats of Hollins and Emory and Henry, despite three disappointing losses to Randolph-Macon Woman's College.

Saddled With Success

After good wins at hunter trials and hunter pace events early in the fall, Sweet Briar cross country riders competed successfully at the Waverly Horse Trials in Charlottesville and Grenadier Horse Trials in Danville. Prize winners included Disa Johnson on SBC's "Malson," Senior Training Division, first in dressage and second overall; Shappy Donnelly, Senior Novice Division, and Girl Conger, Junior Novice Division; both second in dressage and overall in their respective divisions. A Sweet Briar team placed fourth as a hunt team in the Orange County Team Race in Plans, Va., and Katie Hearn on "Tiki" qualified for the championship class at the Keswick Hunter Trials.

In Intercollegiate Horse Show Association competition, Patty Glick placed first in Open Horsemanship on the flat at LaShaun Vetzal won first place in Novice Over Fences. Both were riding against University of Virginia, William and Mary, Mary Washington, and Longwood.

The riders competed in the National Riding Commission's National Three Phase Competition in the spring, as well as continued competition in Open Shows and IHSA.

Different Strokes

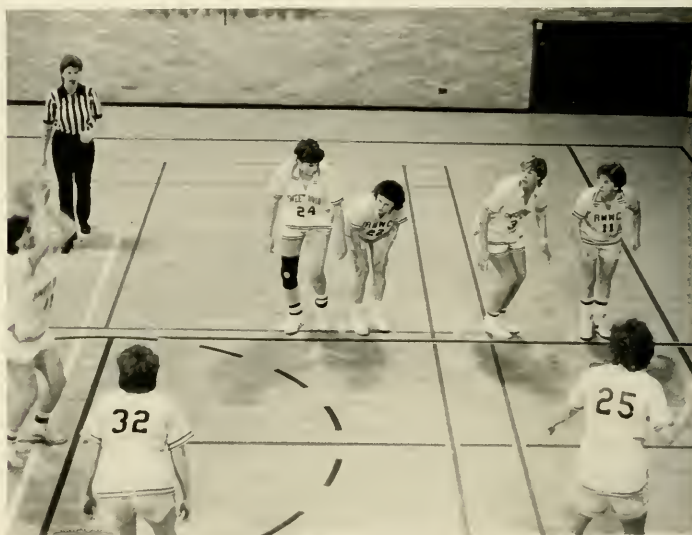

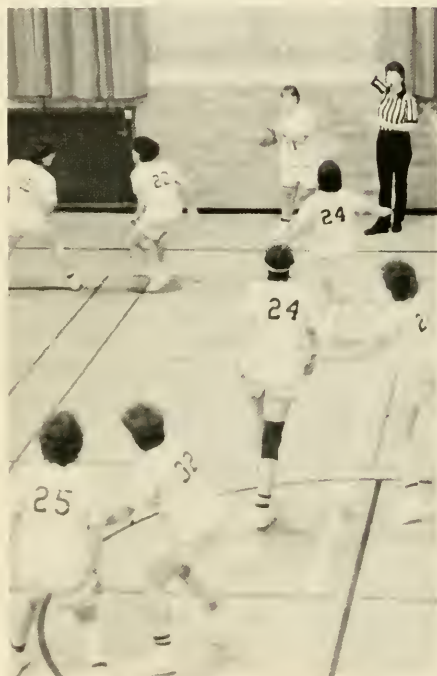

Under the leadership of co-captains Liz McKnight and Julianne Burkhardt, the swimmers completed their eighth consecutive winning season with a 9-5 record, including wins over Division I Georgetown, NAIA schools Pfeiffer, and Brenau, and Division III Mary Baldwin and Randolph-Macon Woman's College.

The team of 17 swimmers and 3 divers had tremendous depth, producing record breaking swims by Jenny Crossland and Lori McGee. Sophomore Liz McKnight qualified for the national championships for the second year in the 50 meter freestyle.

On The Rebound

The 1984-1985 season was Sweet Briar's first as a club team, and the schedule of thirteen games included Averett, Hollins, Marymount, Mt. Vernon, Mary Baldwin, Southern Seminary, Shenandoah, Randolph-Macon Women's College, and Guilford. The team's withdrawal from the Old Dominion Athletic Conference to enter a rebuilding phase was supported by students and faculty alike.

Play this season was highlighted by Ann Merriman's steady rebounding and the consistent scoring of guard Jennifer Frost. Frost, a junior and team captain, netted an average of 12 points per game, while contributing 4.2 assists per contest. Page Franson at center was ably supported by rookie Lynn Weinburg and junior Deanne Dawson. Dawson returned to the team after spending Winter Term away, and added experience to the club. The loss of Gloria Cole to injury early in the season was a blow, but the team rebounded to play competitively throughout the season.

Strung Out

The tennis team finished the fall season with a 2-7 overall record, despite a series of close, hard fought matches. An early season injury to number one singles player Missy Duggins moved everyone up a notch and created a challenging season.

Outstanding performances on the team were junior Allison Akeson, who played number one, and freshman Hilary Von Maur who produced a .500 season in singles. Seniors and team leaders Stacy Zacowski and Allison Clark were a solid doubles combination. Additional Squad members were Jocelyn Whatmough, Lynn Weinberg, Elly Kohlmeyer, Paige Crable, Denton Freeman, Kim Williams, and Crisy Sidles.

With the return of Duggins and junior Lisa Herubin, the spring season ended on a brighter note. Teamed to play tough doubles along with manning their singles positions, Duggins and Herubin joined a team previously seasoned by competition.

On A Mission

The 1984 lacrosse team finished the season 6-4-0, with highlights including an upset victory over previously undefeated Randolph-Macon (Ashland) in the ODAC semi-finals. High scoring Katie Hearn '85 led the conference with 54 goals and was selected Conference Player of the Year. Captain Debbie Blair '84 played a defensive position for the first time in her career and was named to the All-Conference first team for her play at third man. Both Hearn and Blair received honorable mention All American honors. Mary Blair Farinholt, Nancy Buckey, and Comelia Woodworth were also listed as All-Conference.

Seniors Debbie Blair, Mary Earle McElroy and Patsy Roby left a noticable gap to fill, but returning players Hearn, Buckey, Woodworth, Farinholt, Madge Hall, Missy Geisel, Emery Jones, Lee Carroll, Sarah Harrington, Mary Via, Sally Engleby, Mary Yorke Robison, Missy Ackerman, Shannon Wood and Keulwein as well as a strong class of freshmen entered this year's season with the hopes of attaining their first ODAC Championship in the sport.

Sweet Briar Song

Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar, the flower fair,
The rose that on your crest you wear
Shall never fade, but always bear
Thy beauty, O Sweet Briar

Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar, thy columns white
Shine on the hills, a beacon light
Of truth to burn with radiance bright
Forever, O Sweet Briar

Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar, we sing to thee
May thy foundations ever be
Strong as thy hills; thy purity
That of thy rose Sweet Briar

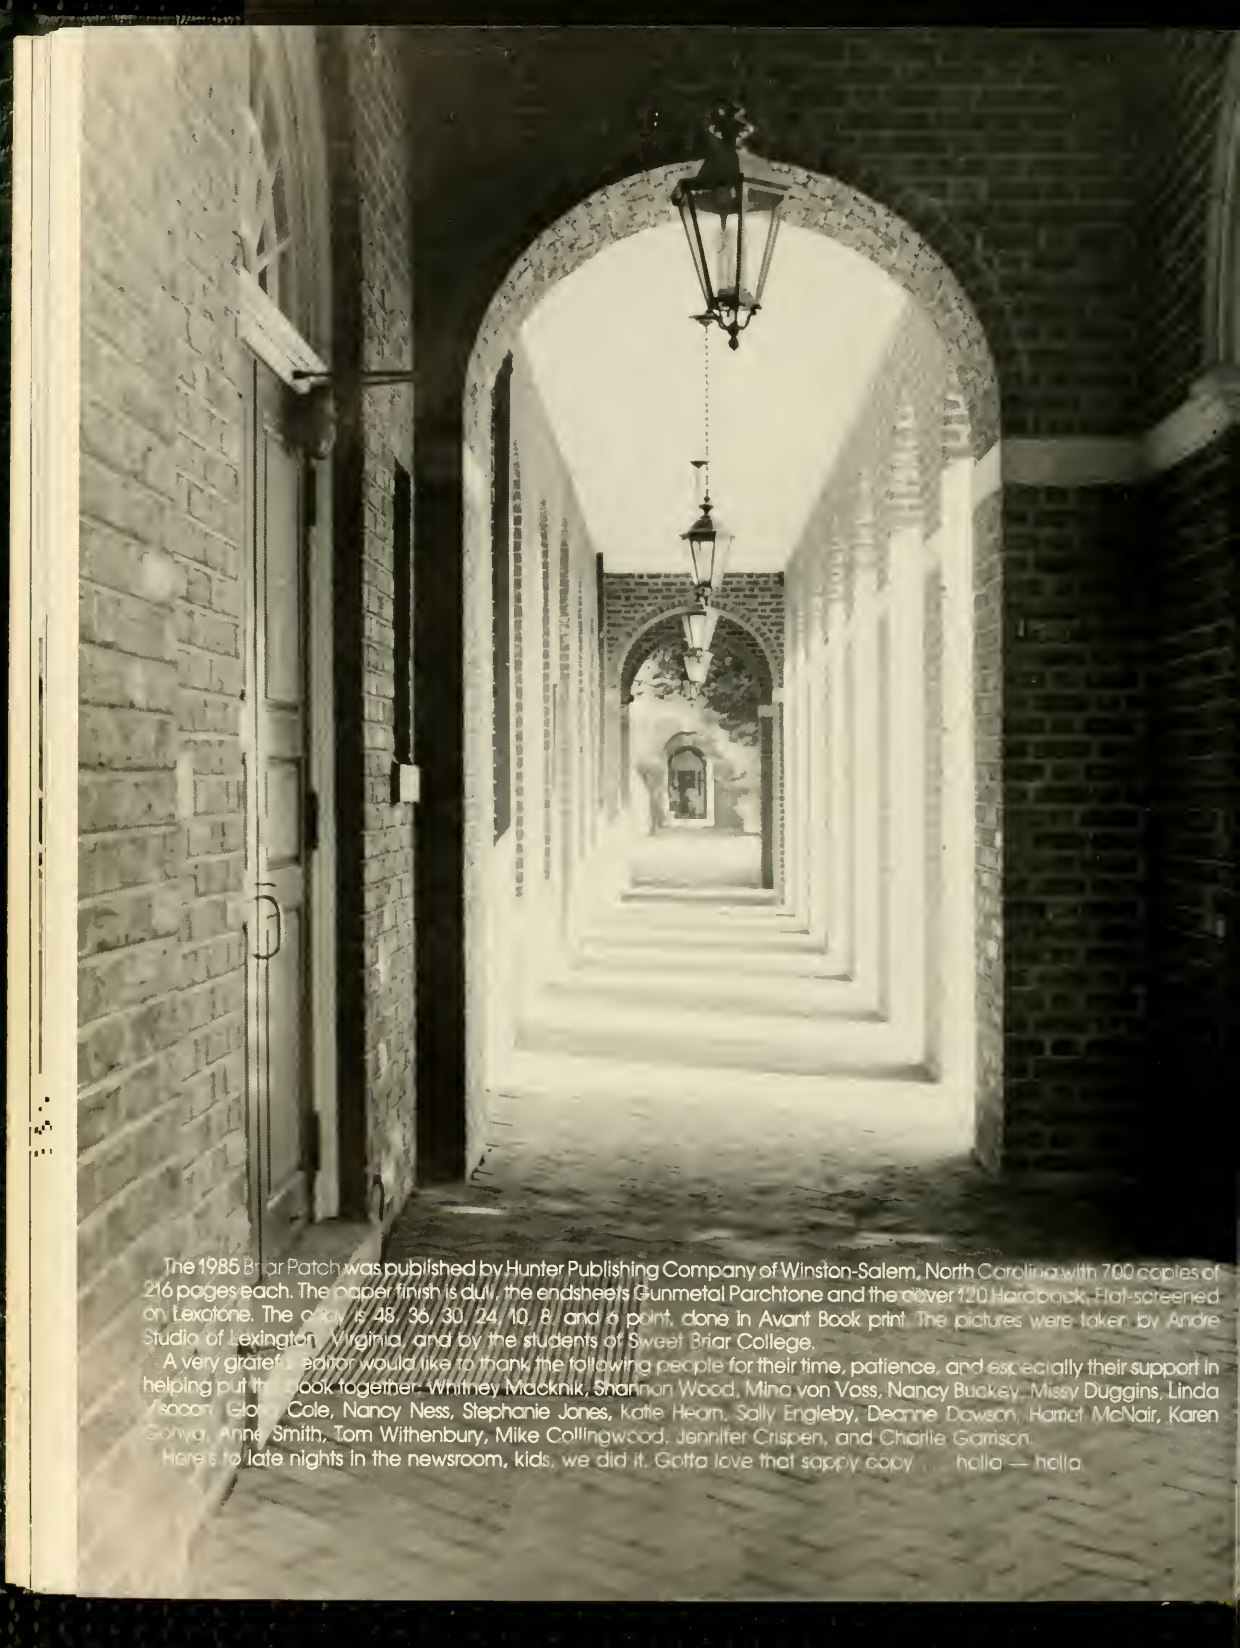

— M. Pinkerton, 1912

In Memory Of
Anne Kathryn Adams

May 2, 1966 — September 22, 1984

for everything there is an appointed season,
And a time for everything
under heaven-
A time for sharing,
a time for caring.
A time for loving,
a time for giving;
A time for remembering,
a time for partying.
You have made everything
beautiful in its time
for everything You do remains forever.

The 1985 Briar Patch was published by Hunter Publishing Company of Winston-Salem, North Carolina with 700 copies of 216 pages each. The paper finish is dull, the endsheets Gunmetal Parchtone and the cover 120 Hardback, Flat-screened on Lexington. The cover is 48/36/30/24/10/8, and a point, done in Avant Book print. The pictures were taken by Andre Studio of Lexington, Virginia, and by the students of Sweet Briar College.

A very grateful editor would like to thank the following people for their time, patience, and especially their support in helping put this book together: Whitney Macknik, Shannon Wood, Mina von Voss, Nancy Buckey, Missy Duggins, Linda Mason, Gloria Cole, Nancy Ness, Stephanie Jones, Katie Hearn, Sally Engleby, Deanne Dawson, Harriet McNair, Karen Gonyea, Anne Smith, Tom Withenbury, Mike Collingwood, Jennifer Crispen, and Charlie Garrison.

Here's to late nights in the newsroom, kids, we did it. Gotta love that sappy cody — holla — holla.
